the most beautiful whole-food holidays in southern France

Have you already planned your holidays for this year? Provide yourself and your family something new and special! Drive in the southwest of France, away from mass tourism in front of the Pyrenean mountains, discover in a wholefood country house your inner peace and new strength. Besides the beauty of nature, you can get in touch with the whole food eating in theory and practice together with your whole family. Experience the many colorful markets, a hike in the beautiful mountains of the Pyrenees, a visit to the pilgrimage site of Lourdes, bathing in the house near lake or in the pool, sauna in our log cabin sauna and many other activities and attractions. Something for everyone.

We have a special offer for groups and associations. You can exclusively book the villa with a supporting program. Other activities are possible and will be adapted on your desires on site. Learn to know in a beautiful countryside, the southern Gascony, the benefits of a healthy diet and lifestyle. So, alone or with family, you will get your money's worth. Please just book early!

How do I book my whole food holidays?

The best time of the year is holiday! But it must be carefully planned. You want to be our guests? Let us the time to prepare everything for you, please call us and tell us your wishes. You can book your holiday via our Internet site or by e-mail. Are we agreed, please pay 10% of the total amount, these are the "just in in case of annulation" fees that we kept in if a cancelling occurs from your side. The rest of the total amount has then to be payed 4 weeks prior to departure. If it lays in your interest, you may consider a travel cancellation insurance.

Do you want more information about a healthy diet and lifestyle during your vacation?

Maybe you want to see how the delicious food is prepared? Or even help during cooking?

Would you like to make a tour in the mountains of the Pyrenees? ... Or to follow the way of St James? (Camino de Santiago), and hike towards Santiago de Compostella?

Seminars in YOGA, meditation ... (also for groups)??

Or do YOU even offer a seminar and you need the right environment and ambience?

We are happy to take your seminar offer, with or without a fixed date. Let us know and become a part of our internet website. So we can offer more interesting activities for our guests on vacation. However, the activities must fit in our philosophy of life.

Let us know your wishes!!!

We look forward to your holidays
